Message from the April 2013 Chairwomen of the Month Committee

All year we have had terrific general meeting programs and April promises to be another great month!

Events This Month:

- Pot-Luck Luncheon for AAUW Funds, Tech Trek and Local Scholarship is on Saturday, April 13, 2013 from 11:00 - 1:30 pm. (See details on front page.)

Our potluck lunch will recognize girls from the Tech Trek program, introduce the recipients of our Local Scholarships, and feature the research being done by Nazanin Shahrokni who is an American Fellowship recipient from AAUW Funds. We will also learn who our branch has chosen to honor as Named Gift Recipients. The food will undoubtedly be fabulous (our members do enjoy eating) and the friendship and fellowship will be priceless.

- English Tea and Silent Auction. April is also the time for our English Tea on April 27, raising money for all three of our local projects: Tech Trek, Local Scholarships, and the Committee for Homeless Women and Girls. Bring a table of family members and friends to support these programs. (See page 3 or front page for details.) This is our only fundraiser for our local projects and we hope you can join us for the afternoon.

Instead of a spring convention, AAUW California will be holding an Annual Business Meeting in Sacramento on Saturday, April 20 to discuss proposed bylaws changes and state dues increase. Registration before April 12 costs $65 and includes a box lunch. If you also want to attend the Speech Trek finals after lunch, there is an additional fee of $15. More details are included in your California Perspective publication. Election of state officers will take place by mail and online after the Business Meeting; you should get an email or postcard with instructions on how to vote.

The winter issue of Outlook, the AAUW magazine, highlights the latest AAUW research report, Graduating to a Pay Gap, which finds that the gender wage gap is alive and well, starting with the very first paycheck that women receive after graduating from college. Just one year out of college, women are paid 82 cents, on average, for every dollar paid to men. AAUW will continue to lead the way to break through the barriers that stand in the way for women and girls. The portion of your dues that goes to AAUW helps support this kind of research and national advocacy efforts.

Chair, Local Scholarship Committee

Still Time to Come to Our English Tea on April 27

Our Committee to Support Local Women and Girls is in the final stages of preparation for our English Tea on Saturday afternoon, April 27, in the Campus Center at West Valley College. Proceeds from this fundraiser will support all three of our local projects: Tech Trek for middle school girls, Local Scholarships for women transferring from West Valley College, and the activities of the Committee for Homeless Women and Children.

Tickets to the English Tea are $40 (of which $25 is tax-deductible) and we encourage you to bring friends and family to fill a table of 6 or 8. Of course men are welcome, as are children and grandchildren who would enjoy the afternoon. Parking is free in Lot 5 at West Valley College. See the English Tea flyer in last month's Grapevine or as a PDF on our website (newsletter page) for more details and a campus map.

Wear a Spring Hat and you may win a prize! Sumi Tanabe and Jean Wenberg are planning some creative categories that will reward all kinds of hats.

Doors will open at 1:00 pm for viewing the Silent Auction with a variety of popular items like bottles of wine, theater tickets, restaurant gift certificates, and decorative treasures. Following the tea service and program, guests will have one more opportunity to check the status of their items and get in those final winning bids. Please be prepared to pay for any purchases before you leave the Campus Center that day; cash is fine, and checks may be made payable to ISPF-AAUW. Credit cards cannot be used, however.

During the afternoon the Jewelry Table will sell both costume jewelry and fine jewelry, so your no-longer-worn jewelry can help support our three local projects. JoAn Lambert is coordinating the Jewelry Table and is happy to accept any gently-used jewelry you care to donate. This is always a popular table with unbeatable prices so do take a look!

Tea and finger foods will be served at 2:00 pm, followed by musical entertainment provided by Art and Peter on the dulcimer and fiddle, and a very short program. Door prizes will be given out during the Tea. Finally we'll have the drawing for our beautiful diamond pendant which features one 3/8 carat diamond and several small diamonds. For a donation of only $5 you will receive one ticket for the drawing; for a $10 donation you get 3 tickets and for $20 you get 7 tickets. Tickets for the drawing will be available through committee members before the Tea, as well as at the Tea itself. You need not be present to win, but you do need to have some tickets to win.

The committee wants to be sure that there is a lot of FUN in this FUNdraising event, so you don't want to miss it! If you have any questions, please call Virginia Turner at 408-866-4234.

Homeless Committee Report: Reopened Casa de Clara – San Jose Hospitality House

Mary Ann O’Conner, of Casa de Clara — Catholic Worker, (a Hospitality House located in San Jose) was our speaker for March 2013 Homeless Committee meeting. She explained that the Catholic Worker’s movement was started by Dorothy Day (1897 - 1980). Day was an American journalist and a social activist who converted to the Catholic faith in 1927. In 1933, Day co-founded The Catholic Worker, (a newspaper) which promoted Catholic teachings and tackled societal issues. The newspaper became very successful and spawned the ‘Catholic Worker Movement’, which tackled issues of social justice guided by its religious principles. Day also helped establish special homes to help those in need.

MaryAnn had been a nursing supervisor at Stanford when she retired, sold her house in San Diego, and moved to San Jose to reopen Casa de Clara, which had been closed for 6 months. Since Mary Ann has only been in the area 6 months, she asked Pat Khan to explain the work of the branches’ Homeless Committee for Women and Children. Mary Ann was surprised to hear all about the work we have accomplished over a great many years. Pat Kahn explained that the committee, at one time, had been much larger.

Casa de Clara is located in an old Victorian house in downtown San Jose, near 6th and Julian Streets. It is independent of the Catholic Church and receives no government funding. Casa De Clara depends on donations, and the help of volunteers. [For more information about Casa de Clara, read their blog at .blogspot.com/” http://sanjosecatholicworker.blogspot.com/ ]

Casa De Clara offers shelter, ‘a bed’, in a family like atmosphere for women and women with children. Clients must be able to work with each other, treat each other with respect and eat dinner together. The clients have chores to do in the house. All the clients are working on their own goals and receive help with their problems. When the clients move in, they must surrender their money, and it goes into a checking account. When they move out, their money is returned. Unlike other shelters, there is no time limit to how long they may stay. At this point there are 9 single women, and 1 woman with a 10 year-old child and 3 month-old baby. The mother, with the baby in a stroller, takes the girl to school every morning by bus and light rail to her 4th grade class in Campbell. This is about 1 1/2 hours trip each way.

Like the majority of shelters, the clients are expected to be gone during the daytime hours. The live-in staff consists of only Mary Ann and a young man in his early 20’s. Mary Ann has her own income to support herself and the young man supports himself with two part-time jobs. The shelter also gratefully relies on volunteers, who by living simply and donating their life to serving others, make Casa de Clara work. The shelter staff and volunteers (along with the clients) keep the shelter running by doing the cleaning, the laundry, the cooking, and the gardening.

Don’t forget to purchase your tickets for the English Tea and Silent Auction, sponsored by the Committee to Support Local Girls and Women at West Valley College, Saturday April 27th Tickets are $40 ad available from Pat Khan, call Pat at (408) 741-1616.
