

March 2012 General Meeting

One Woman Show – Charlie Parkhurst Will be Our Guest!

Linda Dydo

March Chairwomen of the Month: Tina Hubbard and Arleen Pickett

Saturday, March 24, 2011

10:00 am – 12:00 noon

at The Terraces – Los Gatos (800 Blossom Hill Rd.)

Please join us for an entertaining and informative morning.

Entertainment: Join us for a real adventure! Noted stagecoach driver, Charlie Parkhurst, will be our guest. Charlie will tell us how he came to be the most noted whipster on both coasts and thrill us with tales of driving a six-horse team on dangerous routes in the Gold Country and over the Santa Cruz mountains during the mid 1800s. We'll hear of daring deeds, of tales of loving not wisely and perhaps learn a secret or two.

Speaker: Linda Dydo, Interim Los Gatos Library Director, has been in the library field since 1975, always with an emphasis on public library service. In 2003 she came to the Los Gatos Library to work on the planning and construction of the new library, which just opened February 11. Linda feels this is the finest achievement of her career and will share her enthusiasm about Los Gatos' wonderful new asset.

AAUW Cancels Service Learning Event with the Susan G. Komen Foundation

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The American Association of University Women (AAUW) is disappointed with the Susan G. Komen Foundation's decision to strip funding for cancer screenings from Planned Parenthood. As a result, AAUW will not offer the Susan G. Komen Global Race for the Cure as an optional pre-conference community service opportunity at the upcoming National Conference for College Women Student Leaders (NCCWSL). NCCWSL is an annual leadership event, now in its 27th year, attended by hundreds of college women from across the nation.

"This is an opportunity for AAUW to demonstrate leadership on a vital women's health issue: cancer screenings and mammograms for poor and underserved women," said AAUW Executive Director Linda D. Hallman, CAE. "Taking a stand now is an excellent example of what the NCCWSL conference is all about: empowering college women as leaders and informed decision makers."

To its credit, Komen has made advances in women's health. This optional service learning activity has been part of previous conferences.

"AAUW is disappointed that some are playing politics with women's health and jeopardizing care for the most vulnerable among us," said Lisa Maatz, AAUW director of public policy and government relations.

AAUW's long-held position on health care is clear. The member-adopted Public Policy Program makes "increased access to quality, affordable health care and family planning services" a priority.

AAUW hopes that Planned Parenthood and the Komen Foundation, both iconic organizations well known for their efforts to improve and advance women's health, can come to an agreement to restore this critically needed funding. Planned Parenthood health centers provide a wide range of safe, reliable health care, more than 90 percent of which is preventive, primary care. These clinics are often the only source of medical care for their patients, providing access to contraception, reducing sexually transmitted infections through testing and treatment, and screening for breast, cervical, and other cancers.

"This is a regrettable situation for all concerned but exactly the kind of circumstance in which we must strongly adhere to our principles. Those principles have guided us well for more than 130 years," Hallman said.
