Letter from the Leadership Team

LOS GATOS-SARATOGA AAUW NEEDS YOU

We have the place – Immanuel Lutheran Church in Saratoga; we have the date – Saturday, May 14, 2016; we have the menu – the fabulous cooks in our AAUW Branch; we have the guest list – AAUW members and their guests. We even have a complete schedule of tasks for the event. And we have volunteers who have said they would work on decorations, on choosing a speaker, on photography, and on event planning

So what do we need you for? We would like to make our Branch's annual spring potluck a special celebration of Los Gatos-Saratoga AAUW's 75th year of helping women and girls with educational opportunities. Everything is just about in place, but we need is an organizer to pull this together.

Call a meeting of the already committed volunteers and the "old hands" will be there to offer suggestions and guidance. But it will be your event and you don't have to invent it from the ground up. You start with the basic structure and you and your committee round out the event. Even better, you don't even have to raise money!

If you are interested in taking on this activity or have questions about what you will need to do, contact Past President Virginia Turner at (408) 866-4234 or vturner@sbcglobal.net.

Let's send our AAUW Branch to its next 75 years off in style.

"We make a living by what we do, but we make a life by what we give."

–Winston Churchill

"No matter how big and powerful government gets, and the many services it provides, it can never take the place of volunteers."

–Ronald Reagan

Meet the Branch Leadership Team

Virginia Turner, membership vice president, was born and raised in the Minneapolis/St. Paul area; in her senior year of high school her family moved to San Carlos, CA. She earned her BA in history from Santa Clara and her MBA in international business from St. Mary's College of Moraga. Her career has included many different aspects of financial communications including budget analyst, credit manager, investor relations officer and professional fundraiser. She has been in the same investment club for more than 27 years and enjoys following the stock market.

Her mother Eleanor Heinen was an AAUW member and Virginia first joined AAUW in the Citrus Heights (Sacramento area) branch, then the Orinda-Moraga-Lafayette (East Bay) branch and now the Los Gatos-Saratoga branch. She has held many branch positions through the years including recording secretary, treasurer, program vice president, AAUW Funds vice president, newsletter editor, college/university relations, Local Scholarship Committee chair, and president in both the Orinda-Moraga-Lafayette branch and the Los Gatos-Saratoga branch. She knows that joining an AAUW branch is an excellent way to meet interesting women in a social setting, as well as furthering the mission of AAUW, and she particularly enjoys playing bridge.

One of the most memorable opportunities for Virginia was spending her junior year of college studying in Rome, Italy, which allowed her to travel throughout Europe and as far west as Morocco. She and her husband organized a family holiday celebration this past December in Rome with all four of their sons, three daughters-in-law and their six grandchildren – truly an amazing experience.

Among her hobbies Virginia enjoys playing the piano and singing in the church choir, working jigsaw puzzles and word puzzles, and traveling, of course.

Los Gatos-Saratoga AAUW: The 1950s

We were involved in a bond election to build a local high school in Saratoga and gave an “excitingly different” card party to raise funds for the Fellowship Fund. A Current Interests group formed with programs concerning India, France, Siam and Conservation. A Samplers Group was started to acquaint new members with the Branch’s many activities.

The branch sponsored a summer demonstration school for nursery and kindergarten teachers and parents’ observation of four and five year olds under the guidance of Betty Peck. This became the Easterbrook Farm School. In 1953 the Branch presented a Forum on Mental Health in the county to learn the accomplishments and problems of the Mental Health Agencies.

The AAUW Interbranch Council began with presidents and social studies chairs from San Jose, Palo Alto, Los Gatos-Saratoga and Santa Clara branches. AAUW and the Santa Clara County Supervisors presented a public workshop on Jail and Juvenile Home Problems of Santa Clara County at San Jose State College.

Lockheed moved into the valley and our membership grew to 209. AAUW was dubbed the Lockheed Wives Club. International Relations topics concerned Penang, Japan under democracy, and the social economic, and political aspects of Iran, Israel and Scandinavia. A choral group, known as the AAUW Singers, was formed under the direction of Elizabeth Elbon.

Gwen Penniman gets the credit for starting several language sections –

Spanish, Italian, French, Japanese and German — in the local schools for children, starting them in her own home and branching out into other members’ homes later.

As a fundraiser for Fellowships, we held a “Meet the Authors” tea, chaired by Nancy Hobbs, at the Saratoga Foothill Club in 1958. Other fundraisers included an Oriental theme fashion show luncheon and a “Meet the Architect” tea at Montalvo.

Under president Louise Cooper, a committee was formed to screen and recommend members for public offices. Louise Easterbrook became a member of the Los Gatos Union High School Board of Trustees.

The Social Service Group, under the chairmanship of Margaret Whalen, adopted a ward at Agnew State Hospital and provided monthly, Christmas and July Fourth parties, semi-annual programs by the AAUW Singers, and a volunteer teaching program. The Play Reading Group, chaired by Dr. Ruth Rogers, read a play every month, and we listened to programs on estate planning and on the gifted child.

Celebrate Roe v. Wade

January 22, 2016, 11:30 am to 1:00 pm

SAVE THE DATE – The Los Altos-Mountain View Branch of AAUW is busy planning its annual celebration of the Supreme Court decision, Roe v. Wade, which made legal a woman's right to choose an abortion.

If you haven't attended one of these celebrations put on by our local sister branch, you're in for a treat. The speakers are inspiring; the company is great; the energy is high; the cause compelling.

This year, the focus of the event will be support of Planned Parenthood. Put this date on your calendar; additional details will be in next month's December 2015 Grapevine.

If you have any questions, contact Joyce Sogg at (408) 354-5122 or joycelawyer@verizon.net.

Try Something New This Month

– Read one of the PM Books (see page 6); Join one of the Interest Groups you have never attended (see Calendar on page 7); attend our Nov General Meeting – Meet Our Elected Officials (see front page for details).

Two Simple Ways to Recruit New AAUW Members

The first idea is one you're already familiar with: Word of mouth. Our current members are the best way to recruit new members because they already know about AAUW and are interested in our mission.

- Be prepared with a brief description of what AAUW is and what AAUW does. Memorize the mission statement – it's only 13 words long: "AAUW advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy and research."
- Invite your friends and acquaintances to join you at a general meeting which is open to the public.
- Encourage them to come to one of the interest sections they might enjoy. Anyone who is interested in joining our branch is welcome to attend a meeting of any interest group before they join — a "free sample" before they make their decision. Check the calendar in the Grapevine for details of interest group meetings each month and let the coordinator know you are bringing a guest.

- Ask them to sit with you at either of our fundraisers, the Authors' Lunch on January 19 which benefits AAUW Funds and the English Tea on April 16 which benefits our Committee on Homeless Women and our Local Scholarships.

The second idea may be something you are not familiar with: Give a Grad a Gift. Any AAUW member can give recent college graduates a FREE, one-year AAUW National and State membership within two years of graduation, at no cost to you or them. You can give as many gifts as you like! Would this be appropriate for a member of your family or for a neighbor?

For membership forms and more information, contact Virginia Turner at (408) 866-4234 or by email at vturner@sbcglobal.net or visit our branch website www.aauw-lgs.org.

A Message from Chair Nancy Anderson

AAUW Homeless Committee is Hard at Work!

There are lots of activities going on now and we have plans for the future. Here are a few things which we are working on and which other AAUW members can support:

1. The AAUW Homeless Committee urges you to join us at the one year anniversary celebration of the Women's Gathering Place. The celebration will be on Wednesday, November 11, from 5:30 to 7:00 pm at the First Presbyterian Church, 49 N. 4th Street, San Jose. One year ago a safe place for women to go during the day was just a dream; now we offer such a place two afternoons a week. That is the Miracle on 4th Street. Two afternoons a week the women have a safe place to go, to share a warm meal in a safe, nurturing environment. There are crafts, lectures, and performances. There is a very popular Clothes

Closet, a washer and dryer, and soon a shower. For more information, to organize a car pool, or to get directions contact Joyce Sogg at joycelawyer@verizon.net or (408) 354-5122.

2. Drop off used clothing to Nancy Anderson at 13561 Lomond Court, Saratoga. You may leave items on the porch. We can also use towels, as the shower at Women's Gathering Place will soon be installed.
3. We put on a fabulous December holiday party with a wonderful dinner and many gifts for the women at the shelter. And always a special treat- a box of See's chocolates. We would appreciate donations of gifts- we try to have at least 3 for each woman. Some suggestions: Colorful socks, hats, and gloves. Hoodies, vests, and sweaters (large sizes appreciated), but not blue or red, as these are gang colors and sometimes cause trouble. Lotions and cosmetics. You may drop these items off at Nancy's home at 13561 Lomond Court, Saratoga.

HELP THE HOMELESS

4. We are still preparing and serving lunch at the Women's Gathering Place the last Wednesday of each month. This is a simple and very gratifying way to become involved. Contact Joyce Sogg joycelawyer@verizon.net or (408) 354-5122.
