Message from the October 2012 Chairwomen of the Month

Our AAUW year got off to a good start at the Saturday, September 15, 2012 General Meeting with presentations by all the interest groups and committees, followed by a humorous and spirited look at AAUW “Over the Decades.” Many thanks to Nancy Anderson for writing and organizing the skit and to our very fine cast members, including Margaret Bard, Charlene Bunger, Marlene Duffin, Linda Hagelin, Pat Khan, Marlene Lamb, JoAn Lambert, Mary Ellen Madden, Ann Roberts, Virginia Turner and Patty Weber. Thanks also to everyone at the Let’s Do Lunch (Interest Group) who brought refreshments and helped in the kitchen.

This is an election year and we hope you have a chance to attend either the September 29, 2012 or November 6, 2012 PROS AND CONS FORUMS — Pros And Cons on the propositions appearing on the November 6, 2012 ballot. (See column to the right for details.) These programs are sponsored by the AAUW and the League of Women Voters. If you are interested in learning about AAUW California’s position on the state initiatives, please check their website (www.aauw-ca.org) for more information.

The latest issue of Outlook, the AAUW magazine, highlights the AAUW Action Fund campaign, “It’s My Vote: I Will be Heard,” to inspire women to get to the polls. Remind your daughters, nieces and neighbors that their vote makes a difference!

Our next branch program is a performance by the Mission Valley Chorus on Tuesday evening, October 2, at Nordahl Hall in Los Gatos (see the front page for details). This internationally recognized group will be previewing their “Magic to Do” performance leading up to the Sweet Adelines International Competition and will definitely provide an entertaining evening. Proceeds benefit our Local Scholarships for women transferring from West Valley College to a four-year college or university. Thanks to Linda King for making the arrangements with Mission Valley Chorus and to the Local Scholarship Committee – Gladys Armstrong, Margaret Bard, Donette Dake, Lavonne Marafino, Sumi Tanabe, Geri Williams, and Faun Maddux from West Valley College — for their help with the event.

It’s going to be another busy year for the branch, and we hope you’ll join us for the general meetings, special events, and various interest sections.

–Virginia Turner
Local Scholarship Committee Chair

Go Global with Great Decisions 2013!

Sign Up for Great Decisions 2013 and Brush Up Your Foreign Policy Knowledge

We frequently hear the phrase “In a Global World” . . . in the media, political speeches, and business presentations. Access to a global community through the internet has brought the world to our doorsteps.

“The work of the Foreign Policy Association (FPA) is vitally important in educating Americans on current policy issues and expanding public participation in the foreign policy process.” –Colin Powell, former US Secretary of State, made this statement at the FPA 2003 Annual Dinner.

The complexity and multiplicity of the foreign policy questions facing us make it difficult to investigate and learn on our own. Join us in learning and discussing some of the vital foreign policy questions facing the U.S. today.

InnVision Has Merged with Shelter Network to Help End Homelessness

InnVision, the umbrella over Georgia Travis Center, Commercial Street, Inn, and the Villa, made an important announcement on July 1, 2012.

InnVision, the Way Home, and Shelter Network have united as a single nonprofit dedicated to ending homelessness. InnVision Shelter is now one of the leading shelter/housing and supportive service providers in Northern California, supporting thousands of homeless men, women and children annually.

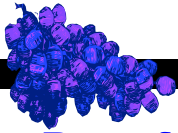

The unified organization represents 64 years of combined service to serving individuals across Silicon Valley and the San Francisco Peninsula. The integration of the two organizations brings significant benefits to the entire community and to their clients, including:

1. improved client outcome
2. increased capacity
3. financial strength
4. consolidated operations.

Mark your calendar: The English Tea and Silent Auction will be held Saturday, April 27, 2013 at West Valley College. The ISPF fundraiser will benefit our local branch projects: the Committee on Homeless Women and Children, Tech Trek and Local Scholarships. Remember to save jewelry to donate to the jewelry table.

States Urge Supreme Court to Uphold Affirmative Action

Fourteen states are urging the Supreme Court to uphold affirmative action in higher education admissions. The states are led by New York Attorney General Eric Schneiderman. The Supreme Court will hear arguments in the case, Fisher v. University of Texas at Austin, on October 10. The lawsuit is against the University of Texas, on behalf of a white student who was not admitted to the school in 2008. The University of Texas says that race is one of many factors for deciding admittance, and they do not use a quota system. In addition to the states' support, the Justice Department and other government agencies have signed a brief noting the importance of diversity in making college admissions decisions.

AAUW supports affirmative action programs that establish equal opportunity for women and minorities and improve gender, racial, and ethnic diversity in educational institutions and in workplaces. AAUW has also filed an amicus brief urging the Supreme Court to uphold the University of Texas' affirmative action program.

Host a Presidential Debate Watch Party AAUW Has All the Tools You'll Need!

Now that the political conventions are over, it's time to gear up for the presidential debates! Debate watch parties are a great way to engage family, friends, and your community to discuss the issues and the candidates' stances on policies that are important to women and their families.

AAUW is once again an official voter education partner of the Commission on Presidential Debates and its DebateWatch program, which urges citizens like you to watch the televised presidential and vice presidential debates and talk about what they've learned. The DebateWatch site includes a complete guide to hosting a DebateWatch party with details on what to do before, during, and after the debate as well as general discussion questions to use. AAUW has also created fact sheets on key issues for you to distribute at your DebateWatch party and use as a discussion piece.

The dates of the three presidential debates are:

1. Wednesday, October 3, moderated by Jim Lehrer, Executive Editor of the PBS NewsHour
2. Tuesday, October 16, moderated by Candy Crowley, Chief Political Correspondent, CNN, and Anchor, CNN's State of the Union
3. Monday, October 22 Bob Schieffer, Chief Washington Correspondent, CBS News, and Moderator, Face the Nation

The vice presidential debate is Thursday, October 11, and it will be moderated by Martha Raddatz, Senior Foreign Affairs Correspondent, ABC News (NOTE: This is the only vice presidential debate).

All of the debates will begin at 9 pm ET and end at 10:30 pm ET.)

Who says the fun has to start and stop with the debate? A debate watch party is a great way to recruit volunteers for AAUW's It's My Vote: I Will be Heard campaign!

The November elections will be here before we know it, so it's time to reach out to millennial women in your community and encourage them to VOTE!

Teleconference – Between AAUW and the White House

Public Policy Watch – Highlights of Issues Affecting Women and Girls

AAUW Public Policy chairs all over the nation had the chance to connect with White House spokespersons regarding these issues in a conference call recently. Here are the highlights:

- GET OUT THE VOTE – We are all urged to remind family and friends to be sure to VOTE this November. Don't just assume everyone will vote, Remind Them!
- STEM EDUCATION – Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics careers are still not fully populated by women. The White House has a copy of "Why So Few?", the AAUW research on women in these fields. Women have half the jobs in the economy, but only 25% of the STEM positions. We all need to encourage students to "hang in there" even though it may not be easy. There are more job openings in these fields than there are qualified Americans to fill them.
- MASTER TEACHER CORPS – The administration's initiative to identify and elevate the best STEM teachers to help other teachers. Those selected will be given a salary raise of $20,000. Question: How to identify the best teachers?
- VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT – Passed by Senate, now a stalemate in House. This bill (S. 1925, H.R. 4970) focuses on girls ages 16-24. The greatest number of abused women are in this age range. We are encouraged to write to our representatives in support of this bill.
- HEALTHCARE ACT – Lots of information at www.Healthcare.gov

Keep watch for more Public Policy Watch updates in future Grapevine newsletters.

BERNADINE AMES FAWLEY

October 7 1925 - July 9, 2012

Bernie was born and raised in Minnesota. She attended the University of Minnesota for 3 years, studying Journalism. Bernie left to take a job as a photographer and journalist for the Minneapolis Star-Journal. She moved on to become editor for the Dayton News, a bimonthly magazine for the employees of Dayton's Department Store. Being independent, she drove across country to California where she finished her degree in Home Economics at San Francisco State University. She soon met and married Ivan Fawley.

After spending time in Japan, where Ivan served in the U.S. Air Force, they returned to the Bay Area and reared their family. Eventually Bernie returned to school and earned a double Masters in Home Economics and in Education/Counseling from San Jose State University. Bernie taught Nutrition part-time at West Valley College. She was an accomplished violinist for the San Jose Orchestra and played tennis into her early 80s.

Bernie was a long-time member of the Saratoga Foothill Club and the Los Gatos-Saratoga AAUW where she was active on the Homeless Committee. Bernie found the entertainment for The Committee's Annual English Tea for many year. After the Tea, Bernie would say, "I'm not going to do that again". She'd do it again the next year. She regularly attended Conversational Spanish and the Bridge interest groups.

Bernie is survived by her husband of 56 years, Ivan Fawley, three children, sons Reece and Brooks, and a daughter, Tracy, along with 8 grandchildren, and her brother Scott Ledy, of Minnesota. Bernie touched many people's lives, and will be greatly missed. Donations in her memory may be made to the Bernie Fawley Memorial Fund, Committee on Homeless Women and Children. Please make checks out to ISFP-AAUW-SCCO and mail to Nancy Anderson, 13561 Lomond Ct, Saratoga, CA 95070.
